Commitment to Excellent Education

The Los Angeles Community College District (LACCD) is committed to being a leader in student success by providing high-quality, affordable, and accessible education that improves students’ lives, enriches the area’s many diverse cultures, and strengthens our local economy.

However, many buildings, classrooms, science labs, and job training equipment at Los Angeles Community Colleges campuses are deteriorating and outdated – including some buildings built more than 60 years ago.

Local voters will have an opportunity to make a difference by voting Yes on Measure LA this November.

Measure LA: Quality, Affordable Education for ALL

Measure LA provides critical funding to provide quality, affordable, accessible education to prepare college students for university transfer and good-paying jobs in manufacturing, biotech, nursing, engineering, and many other high-demand careers.

Measure LA will upgrade and repair all nine community colleges in the Los Angeles Community College District.
